

NPQ accredited by

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML)

Audience:

Primary School
Teachers
Aspiring/Current
Middle Leaders

Complete the DfE's NPQML with Symphony Teaching School in partnership with SSAT, and ensure that you have the skills and confidence to progress in your career. Your role as a middle leader is fundamental to the success of your school and students and undertaking the NPQML with us will maximise the difference you can make.

The NPQML course involves

- working towards a change project in your school, impacting positively on your students and team.

To give you the skills, knowledge and characteristics to achieve this, you will complete 12 study modules, supported by a coach. You will also work through leadership competencies, intersession tasks and a professional learning journey.

You will attend 4 whole day face-to-face sessions while completing your project where you will get the chance to meet other aspiring and current middle leaders.
